Official Form 309I

Notice of Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case

12/15

For the debtors listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors, the debtors' property, and certain codebtors. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.

Confirmation of a chapter 13 plan may result in a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 1328(f) must file a motion objecting to discharge in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadline specified in this notice. Creditors who want to have their debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the same deadline. (See line 13 below for more information.) The debtor is required to appear at the Confirmation Hearing unless excused by order of the Court or Chambers Guidelines. Any objection to confirmation of the proposed plan and related motions must be filed and served in compliance with SC LBR 3015–1, SC LBR 9013–3, and SC LBR 9014–1. If objections to confirmation are timely filed, they will be heard at the Confirmation Hearing at the time and place set forth above or at a hearing, separate notice of which will be given by the Court. Objections to confirmation may be overruled if the objecting creditor fails to appear and prosecute the objection. If no objection is timely filed in accordance with SC LBR 3015–1, SC LBR 9013–3 and SC LBR 9014–1, the plan may be confirmed and related motions resolved on recommendation of the trustee. Should this happen, the Confirmation Hearing may be canceled.

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at www.pacer.gov).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the court.

A Proof form at the Please of creditor in Proof of your claim claim is I of the Barroof of for a Creditor all creditions.		Deadlines for filing proof of claim:  A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. You can obtain a copy of the proof of claim form at the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office in Columbia or through the Court's website at www.scb.uscourts.gov . Please call the Clerk's Office if you have procedural questions about the filing of a proof of claim. A secured creditor retains rights in its collateral regardless of whether that creditor files a Proof of Claim. If you do not file a Proof of Claim by the "Deadline to file a Proof of Claim" as set forth above, you might not be paid any money on your claim from other assets in the bankruptcy case. To be paid you must file a Proof of Claim even if your claim is listed in the schedules filed by the debtor. Filing a Proof of Claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a Proof of Claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial. Filing Deadline for a Creditor with a Foreign Address: The deadlines for filing claims set forth above on this notice apply to all creditors. If this notice has been mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the Court to extend the deadline. You may electronically file claims at www.scb.uscourts.gov/epoc.html. Do not include this notice with any filing you make with the court.
